The Body in the Library

Calling All Super Sleuths, Daring Detectives, and Incredible Investigators!

A murder most foul has been committed at the Oradell Public Library. You'll need all your wits about you as you examine the clues, interrogate the suspects, and figure "whodunit!" It may be the person you least suspect!
