

You're Invited...

'Un-Black Friday' Shopping Event

to benefit the Youth Department at the Oradell Public Library

WHEN: Friday, November 1, 2013; Drop in anytime between 4pm-9pm. Moms - Feel free to stop by after school gets out! From 4pm to 5pm, we'll have volunteers from the Library's Teen Advisory Board on hand to read stories and color pictures with the little ones while you shop.

WHERE: Eco Galleria, a wonderful independently-owned boutique specializing in handcrafted items and artisanal gifts, at the Oradell Train Station, 400 Maple Avenue.

WHAT: Ladies' Night Out Shopping Event. Enjoy light refreshments, free gift wrapping, a 10% discount on all purchases and 10% of all sales will be donated to the the Oradell Public Library to support children's programming. Don't miss this great opportunity to gather with friends, get a head start on holiday shopping, and raise funds for children's programming at the Oradell Public Library. Visit www.ecogalleria.com for a sneak preview of the shop's fantastic selection of home decor, fashion accessories, jewelry and gift items—and start making your shopping list!

Oradell Free Public Library

