

You're Invited to... Make YOUR Space @ Oradell Free Public Library

WHEN: Saturday, March 21, 2015, 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

WHERE: Oradell Free Public Library, 375 Kinderkamack Road, Oradell

WHAT: We are celebrating New Jersey Makers Day – and the launch of Make YOUR Space @ Oradell Free Public Library, a new resource center devoted to creativity, design, technology, innovation, and education – with a day of demonstrations and hands-on activities for all ages.

- * Make your own edible Angry Bird cupcake (10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.);
- * Learn how to knit (10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.);
- * SNAP circuits: Learn about DIY electronics (12:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.);
- * Learn how to crochet a bookmark (1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.);
- * Create your own stories and animations using Scratch block programming (all day);
- * Make your own bird feeder with recycled materials (all day);
- * Create your own water cycle, sponsored by United Water (all day);
- * Design your own sock puppet (all day);
- * Build your own toolbox, sponsored by Home Depot (all day); and much more!

A complete schedule is available at <http://oradell.bccls.org/>. This is a drop-in event. All activities are free and open to the public on a first-come, first-served basis.

SPECIAL THANKS: Make YOUR Space funding was provided through proceeds from the Oradell Free Public Library Foundation's "School of Fish" Fundraising Event. Grants were also made by the Oradell Free Public Library Foundation and the Friends of the Oradell Public Library.
