Lindsay Steffner's Girls Basketball Camps are a unique opportunity for girls to develop as a team player and work on individual skills. The Elite camp will emphasize skill development, individual and team strategy, and introduce the girls to the River Dell's Offensive and Defensive systems. The Day camp will emphasize offensive and defensive skill development, daily competitions, playing 3 on 3 and full court games. Your daughter's favorite River Dell players will be their counselors.

Camp Director: River Dell Varsity Girls Basketball Coach, Lindsay Steffner

Coach Steffner led the Golden Hawks to a 2nd place finish in their Big North Division this past winter while posting an overall record of 17-8. Prior to coming back to RD, she was the Head Coach at Northern Valley Demarest, where her squad won the League in 2015. Coach Steffner served as an assistant coach and camp director at Lehigh University from 2003-2008. Coach Steffner also played at the University of Delaware, where she was a 4 year letter winner and captain her senior year. She was a stand out athlete at River Dell High school, where she was named 1st Team All-State in basketball and 1st Team All-County in basketball three times. She led River Dell to a County Championship in 1997 and was voted to the Bergen Record's All-Decade and All-Century Teams in 2000. River Dell inducted her into their Athletic Hall of Fame in 2010.
