

Sunday, September 23, 2018—7 to 9 p.m.

Hackensack River Story Night

Celebrating 30 Years of Bergen SWAN's Environmentalism & Our Watershed in Words, Music, Dance, & Plants...

Featuring:

- ✂ River-themed Storytelling & Presentations
- ✂ River Poetry Tribute to Mark G. Becker
- ✂ Renowned Guitarist, Buck Curran
- ✂ Ridgewood's Art of Motion Dance Theatre
- ✂ Silent Auction Sale

When:

September 23, 2018
7:00-9:00pm

Where:

Hague Park, Oradell Avenue & Grove Street, Oradell, NJ

Rain Venue:

Westwood Railroad Station, Broadway, Westwood, NJ

Thanks to our sponsors...

Blooming Hill Farm

Credit: Gene Skala, "Blue Swan, Night Swan," 2015, Oil on panel, Courtesy of the Artist

Storytelling by lantern light under a giant copper beech.

Walk to the river and memorial poetic tribute to SWAN's Co-Director, Mark Becker.

A unique fundraiser under a full moon—live music and dance, native fern display, silent auction, refreshments.

Need tickets? See below! Join us for a very special night!

Tickets start at $25/person, kids under 12 attend free.

Tickets must be purchased in advance! Reserve Early!

Write or call Bergen SWAN at bergenswanrsvp@gmail.com or 201-666-1877. See website for further details & instructions!

Bergen SWAN / Westwood, NJ / www.bergenswan.org/ bergenswanrsvp@gmail.com / 201-666-1877

Please Note: The content of this flyer is provided solely as a public notice. The event or activity described here is not in any way affiliated with the Oradell Public Schools, nor is it endorsed by the Oradell Board of Education.

ATTENTION ORADELL STUDENTS:

KIDS UNDER 12 ARE FREE—SPECIAL DISCOUNT OF $10/PERSON FOR OLDER STUDENTS!