DIRECTORS

Nikki Hendricks is a Fifth Grade Teacher at Oradell Public School. She started dancing as a young child, majored in Dance at Hofstra University, and continues to study various styles of dance in NYC. Her love of dance and performing, as well as her desire to instill in children this joy, has motivated her to share this passion. Nikki has a talent for providing all children with the opportunity to express themselves through dance.

Carol Richardi is a graduate of Westminster Choir College and has been a music teacher at Oradell Public School for thirty years. During this time she has directed the school's musicals, offering many children their first experience in the world of theatre. She has extensive training in developing children's voices. She is the former director of the New Jersey Children's Choir, which has been featured on television and performed in such venues as Carnegie Hall and NJPAC. Her passion is to inspire children with the love of music.

Chris Schlegel majored in theatre at Vassar College. She is a member of the Screen Actors Guild and is a professional actress who has performed with many improv companies in NYC as well as in film, television, commercials and on stage. Chris has an energetic, fun spirit which allows children to thrive as performers.

Nikki, Carol, and Chris began working together several years ago while directing Oradell Public School's musical theatre productions. Currently, they are staging "The Wizard of Oz" with a cast of 150 children. They are proud to say they cast every child who auditioned. They believe that all children who wish to perform be given the opportunity.
