Audition Technique and Performance Master Class with Casting Agent Janet Foster

4 two-hour classes on the following Saturdays:

October 2, 16, 23, 30

$300

Classes will meet

10:00 am – 12:00 pm on ZOOM

(Zoom is the medium that is currently used for casting).

Classes are open to children ages 7 – 16.

Space is very limited.

In this workshop, children will choose a monologue and learn the techniques used to develop it. They will rehearse and perform their monologue. At the final session, they will have the opportunity to perform for Casting Agent Janet Foster, during which they will receive feedback and instruction with a Q & A to follow.

Janet Foster is Casting Director and a senior member of the artistic team at the American Conservatory Theater in San Francisco. Before moving to San Francisco from New York, Janet was the owner of Janet Foster Casting, where she cast The Light in the Piazza for Lincoln Center, and on Broadway the cast Lennon, Ma Rainey's Black Bottom, and Taking Sides. Off-Broadway, Janet has cast Endpapers, True Love, The Dying Gaul, The Maiden's Prayer, Dream True, Trojan Women, and A Love Story. She has also extensively cast for film, television, and regional theaters.
