

Shannon Sharkey feels honored and excited to join the Oradell Public School Team. After earning her Bachelor's and Master's degrees from the College of New Jersey in speech and language pathology, Mrs. Sharkey began her dedicated career in education. She was a speech therapist for over twenty years and has worked in a variety of settings, including private schools, public schools and her own private practice, serving preschool through elementary aged students with various abilities.

In 2010, Mrs. Sharkey joined the Warren Township School District as a speech therapist supporting preschool through middle school aged students. In order to broaden her impact on student growth and achievement, Mrs. Sharkey decided to pursue Education Leadership and earned an Educational Specialist degree from Seton Hall University in Educational Leadership, Management, and Policy. Five years ago, she became Supervisor of Special Education for Warren Township Schools and recently, acted as Interim Elementary Principal. Throughout these roles and experiences, Mrs. Sharkey has valued working with multi disciplinary teams to collaborate and support students within inclusionary settings. She is committed to working together to achieve strong outcomes for all child(ren). Along with the OPS staff and administration, Mrs. Sharkey works hard to continue the legacy of student success by building strong relationships with parents, students and community partners.
